For Law Education Rep!!!

I consider myself as a smart, well organised and friendly individual who is cooperative, responsible and punctual. I like to take on new challenges which enable me to develop many skills such as being patient, the ability to compromise, to think one step ahead and team work. I have many aspirations and am a very ambitious motivated person, I feel that I show my full potential in all aspects of life and I am keen to take up the challenging role of Law Educational Rep!

If you elect me I will, to my best ability:

- Listen to your ideas and concerns.
- Represent your views to various Committees, e.g. University Committees and Student Union Committees.
- Be someone who can approach about any problems you may have.
- Talk to Course Rep's about issues you find important and update them about activities.
- Attend the relevant Union and University Committees and User Groups
- Make sure your voice is heard by the Student Union.
- Assist with Undergraduate Educational Campaigns.
- Chair the Undergraduate Faculty Course Representatives Council with undergraduate course reps in the faculty to discuss problems etc and discuss issues relating to their staff student committee meetings and other issues within their faculty.
- Report all undergraduate educational matters affecting students within their faculty to the Undergraduates Committee.
- Present termly reports to the Undergraduates Committee.
- Increase awareness of my position and how to communicate with me
